Strengths:

Daran is an excellent defender from the perimeter into the paint. He plays hard on the boards and can run the floor extremely well on the wing. He can finish in traffic and has enough strength to take it low against bigger opponents.

He sees the floor well and works well as part of a unit. He has a very good mid-range jumper and can step out on the 3-point line and not down the long-range shot. He is a tough match-up for bigger defenders with his quickness.

Intensity and passion for the game

Player Bio

Class of 2008

Weakness:

Depending on the next year, he will need to improve his ball handling skills and be prepared to run the point position when requested.

Balancing the floor with his teammates and moving the ball around the arc for the best shot.
